BORDEAUX – SAUVIGNON BLANC CHATEAU DU BALLANDREAU 2017

Bordeaux is the most extensive appellation wine vineyard in France. Located in the southwest, it's crossed by the Garonne and the Dordogne and has an oceanic and temperate climate. The richness, quality and diversity of these wines are based on the typical nature of the terroirs, the experience of the men and the art of assembly. The tide, rising from the two rivers, brings to the wine very specific characteristics. Benefiting from this vast territory, the red Bordeaux offer a palette with infinite shades and combine their virtues in a thousand and one ways.
