

Comtesse de Saint-Pey Terre de Vignerons

Terre de Vignerons is the production and commercialization union for fifteen cooperative wine cellars in the Entre-deux-Mers (Gironde, 33) and Duras (Lot-et- Garonne, 47) regions. Beyond its profession, Terre de Vignerons represents a multitude of tales, families, lands, wines... and is proud to carry, both on national and international scenes, the cooperative values: human solidarity, authenticity, performance and conviviality. Terre de Vignerons, a simple name, yet true and evocative: a tool that reflects our winegrowers and remains at their service.

This sparkling wine is produced according to very strict rules from Semillon and Cabernet Franc grapes. The harvest is manual and transported directly to the press in crates.

WINE MAKING

Manual harvest. Transportation between the vine and the wine press is made only in crates. Furthermore, the winemaking process follows the champanoise method: pressing, first fermentation, bottle fermentation, bubble production in the second fermentation, ageing, riddling, degorging and titration

TASTING NOTES

This wine has delicate bubbles and a pale yellow colour with green hues. The nose is subtle and floral. The taste is pleasant and round, very bubbly and sweet finish.
