Dear Friends,

L'Ami Jac is a small startup company with the ambition of becoming a successful ambassador and champion of wine growers and winemakers – Les vigneron.

We import 80% of our wines and the remainder comes from other importers, who like us, have held strong links with the vineyards for several years. Each wine is unique and each vineyard we represent has its own story.

In our view it is very difficult to find similar wines as our aim is to offer you the best value for money. We began this challenge six years ago with Chateau Barbe which for 35 years was the table wine of my grandfather. Since then we have been creating strong links with our friends and suppliers. Among the wines we are importing from France there are several, for example, Le Chateau de Brigands, which equals the quality of the large, better known vineyards from L'Appellation Côtes de Provence.

In our Portfolio you will find wines which are only produced in limited quantities, whereas some vigneron produce only 10,000 bottles a year, La Cuvee 500 (a very particular Pomerol) from Chateau Haut-Goujon produce even less, only 1300 bottles per annum.

To support us means the Customer is also supporting the smaller independent vineyards and the young generation of wine makers, like the 28 year old Sebastien Pierre from Chateau Caillou or Patrick Daubas (38) from Chateau Tour Bicheau.

I would like to take this opportunity of offering my heartfelt thanks to our loyal customers over the last 7 years and likewise to my new customers. Together we have survived Le Brexit and Covid pandemic.

Your friend JAC

For further discussion.

Best wishes
